

NOMINATION FORM FOR UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT MERCY SCHOOL OF LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The University of Detroit Mercy School of Law Alumni Association seeks candidates to serve upon the School's Alumni Association Board of Director commencing each September. The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Alumni Association. It has up to 24 elected members, plus an appointed representative from the most recent graduating class and an appointed representative from the student body. Elections are held on an annual basis for staggered terms. To serve as a Director, the nominee must be an alumnus of the University of the Detroit Mercy School of Law and actively participate as a Director and adhere to its attendance policy.

Service on the Alumni Association Board of Directors is a fulfilling experience and is intended to enhance leadership skills, provide networking opportunities, as well as provide a platform for the nominee to be of service to the School. If you are interested in serving on the Board, or you would like to recommend someone for the board, please complete this form and return it to the Alumni Relations Office at the address below no later than March 1. This will provide sufficient time for the Committee to review the form and contact the nominee, before the Board votes at its meeting in May.
