Students who receive financial aid awards for summer school attendance must complete their registration no later than May 16, 2017 for law classes and May 2, 2017 for ALL MBA classes. Awards will be based upon the credit hours for which students are registered on the dates above. Students graduating at the end of summer must attend a loan exit interview if they borrowed any federal loans while at UDM. CAVEATS: Awards, including loans, may be cancelled if the student does not continue to meet federal financial aid regulations including those for Satisfactory Academic Progress and not being in default, and refunded amounts may become due and payable immediately. Failure to complete at least 60% of the term will result in reduction of federal loans per the federal refund policy. If you will change credits from the number listed above, complete a re-evaluation form as soon as you know about the change. Awards cannot be made after the student's last date of attendance/end of the enrollment period.
